Everyone should bring a project and have a show & tell about the project. Bring your tools to do a little work on your project. Shawn has been working on a different project each month. Your work looks great.

LETTER FROM THE IFOLG SHOW GUILD

..To: All IFoLG Guilds
From: Columbine Leather Guild

There's just six months left until the 2005 IFoLG Show, Colorado Round-up, in Denver September 30, October 1 & 2. We're planning a great show that you won't want to miss. Here's a "heads up" on the many workshops in our plans. Please share it with your members.

We and Carol Higgins have lined up an outstanding group of instructors for this year's mini-workshops. We have commitments from two who have never taught at an IFoLG show before -- Pete Gorrell and Barry King -- and three who haven't been at IFoLG for a long time -- Rene Berends, Tony Laier and Peter Main. Carol has eight more popular instructors: Carol Gehrman, Dale Grabowski, Tom Hall, Roz Kaohn, Edd Lucas, Nita Pickering, Ron Ross and Andy Stasiak. There'll be fifteen mini-workshops in all, three each on Friday morning, afternoon and evening and Saturday morning and afternoon.

Two pre-show workshops are planned for those who can stay longer: a three-day class by Bob Beard, and a two-day session by Bill Gomer.

In addition, two special free workshops will take place during the show. Bill Gomer and Tony Laier plan a short workshop on judging, for prospective judges and for anyone who wants to learn more about how competition entries are judged. Jim Linnell will lead a free workshop for area youth and 4H leaders.

Carol's write-up with the details and application forms should be in your mailbox by early April.

We also expect a large group of vendors. Some of you may recall the false rumor that was rampant in Topeka about the Wichita Falls show being the same weekend as IFoLG. 'Tain't so! The Wichita Falls show is the week after ours, so vendors can attend both shows if they wish.

Save the dates for the Colorado Round-up, and watch for the workshop write-up in the mail and more news in the May IFoLG newsletter.
