FOLG HARVEST OF LEATHER SHOW, Butler ,Pa.

Not all of us can attend all the shows, but those that can have a good time. Are you entering, competing, making table favors or donating items for the raffle? Whatever you do participation is key to making a show successful. Remember they are looking for raffle donations and not just from guilds, if you want to donate it does not necessarily have to be leather related. Have something you would like to donate, let Linda Zavala know- she will notify the Pitt Pounders Guild and bring it to the show if you are not attending.

Remember to get your tickets for the show's special raffles: an Al Stohlman autographed copy of Pictorial Carving Finesse at $1.00 per ticket. Or... for $10.00 win a gift certificate worth $1000.00, $500.00 or $250.00. Send check to: Pat Hay, P.O. Box 98, Cary, Ms. 39054 or through Paypal to missboll@gmail.com

Mississippi Valley Fair, Davenport, Iowa August 1- 6

Thanks to everyone who entered in the Mississippi Valley Fair and if you didn't enter this year plan on it for 2007. Besides ribbons, premiums ($) are given. Also think about coming out helping, hanging around for a day or more. You have a good time, work on your leather & can learn more about leather from the others who attend.

Thanks to Judy Singleton, who helped judge. Thanks also to Tom & Fran Vodicka, who have been attending since 1982 and Linda Zavala who has only been attending since 2003. Tom & Fran have much knowledge to share not only about the fair and leather but also of the PSLG. As you sit around with them you get many tips on leatherworking. Also at the table are two people from Davenport who don't have a guild to join in their area.

Congratulations winners: Joe Holman - a first, Clyde Gilliland - two firsts, John Eisenbart –seconds, thirds, & a fourth, and Linda Zavala- firsts, seconds, & a third.
